SOCIAL

Elope to Oakland.
When the accommodation train pulled into the station yesterday evening from the Parkersburg branch, two very youthful couples stepped therefrom and made for the most place in the waiting room. From the manner of their dress and their nervous and excited manner it was easy to determine that there was an elopement on foot. They evidently feared being intercepted by telegraph, for during their long wait for train No. 4 going east, they kept a watchful eye on everybody that in any way had the appearance of an officer, and Station Master Charles R. Lilly, resplendent in his new uniform of blue and glittering brass buttons and gold braid came in for an especial share of their attention. They got away safely, however, and returned here on the 11:30 accommodation today from Oakland, where one of the couples was happily married this morning.

To those who saw them yesterday, the look of relief and joy on their faces today would have been amusing. They remained here until the 3 o'clock train this afternoon when they left for Clarksburg. The bride was Miss Mona Coffman and the bridegroom Mr. D. C. Booher. The other couple who accompanied them were Miss Ada Booher, sister of the bridegroom, and Mr. Jaba Swiger. All the parties are prominent young people of Wallace, on the Short Line railroad.—Grafton Sentinel.

Cantata Rehearsal.

In the Central Christian church last evening the Marcato Choral Club held a very enthusiastic and successful rehearsal of the cantata, "The Rose Maiden," and much interest is manifested by the members of the caste. It promises to be one of the brightest and charming musical productions given in the city for several seasons. The soloists, Miss Boardman, Miss Boggess, Miss Fletcher, Mr. Lynch, the Rev. W. M. Long and Mr. Bartlett, take their parts to perfection, and it is expected by the management to render this attractive little cantata some time next month.

Literary Club Meets.

A very interesting meeting of the Tuesday Literary Club was held this afternoon in the home of Mrs. John J. Davis. The officers to serve for the ensuing year were elected, and the reports of the secretary, treasurer and committees were discussed and handed in. The committee on year book was also appointed.

FLOYD ALLEN

Is Placed on Trial for the Murder of Prosecutor Foster.

WYTHEVILLE, Va., April 30.—Floyd Allen, one of the leaders of the clan which wiped out the Carroll county court March 14, was placed on trial here today for the murder of Prosecutor Foster. Much difficulty is being experienced in securing a jury.

Allen is still in existence. In this document Allen bound himself to deliver to Quay the votes of all Pittsburgh and Allegheny county legislators and congressmen and all delegates to state and national conventions, in return for which Quay was to protect Allen in his private and political business in the legislature of the state.

The proposition was so rotten that even Quay turned it down.

This is the man Theodore Roosevelt, former president of the United States, has resurrected into political life under the plea of "Let the people rule."

Gordon at the close of a hearing on a charge of feloniously cutting Frank Folio, a foreigner, when the two had a fight April 17 at the corner of Clark and North Fourth streets. Folio was slashed on the head, side and arm, but none of his wounds were serious.

FINE OFFERING

At the Popular Bijou Theater for the Day and Night Only.

The Bijou's offering today and tonight is especially fine and the many patrons of that popular theater are availing themselves of the opportunity to see a splendid bill, featured by Manager W. S. Simerai with the Selig masterpiece, "Cinderella." As previously stated the production is praised by both pulpit and press and all those here who have seen it are loud in their laudations. The picture will be here the one day only and your last chance to see it will be tonight.
